

Carl Baguhn GmbH & Co. KG is a traditional medium-sized company and offers its customers worldwide spare parts and customer service. We are specialized in the repair and maintenance of engines and engine components from shipping and industry.

We are expanding and are looking for a

Service Technician for high and medium speed engines (m/f/d)

Your tasks:

- Assembly, repair and maintenance of individual engine components and complete systems in our workshop and/or onboard of ships, in industrial sector e. g. power plants as well as private boat sector
- Fault diagnosis in electrical/electronic systems
- Fault diagnosis in engine management systems
- Development of problem solutions for engines and electronics

Your profile:

- Completed vocational training as an engine fitter, car mechanic, industrial mechanic, agricultural machinery mechanic or mechatronics engineer
- Good knowledge of electrics and electronics
- Knowledge of exhaust gas treatment and hybrid technology
- Knowledge of English and German is required
- Independent and responsible way of working
- Several years of professional experience desirable
- Driver's license

We offer a secure job with long-term prospects in a motivated team and a family working atmosphere. Good social benefits such as occupational disability insurance, company health insurance, company pension schemes and performance-related pay are also part of it.

Please apply by sending your CV and covering letter including your salary expectations to

Carl Baguhn GmbH & Co. KG

Frau Saskia Bußmann
Wendenstraße 252 – 254
20537 Hamburg
bussmann@carlbaguhn.de www.carlbaguhn.de